CRETA

collection

The show of the daily life needs a suitable stage, the new house luxury is represented by the return to high valuable materials and to a refined handwork. The protagonists are represented with neoclassical atmospheres, essences in Myrtle briar with cherrywood edges, elegant geometrical inlaid decorations, twisting columns ending with Acanthus leaves and mother-of-pearl finishings are the most evident qualities of these unique pieces.

All the upper elements of the collection are characterized by a Tympanum with a central sweep, by edges with greek frets covered with antique patinated silver leaves. Sherazade, the fabric line in silk velvet in sumptuous colours, completes the collection composed by living-rooms, bedrooms, complement which are co-ordinated among each other to suggest a perfect coherences of style.
